Re: Presidential Search Website

With the recent launch of the search for the University's 16th president, our colleagues in University Communications and Marketing have developed a website where members of the campus community can review relevant information about the search including the search committee's membership, charge, the Office of the Chancellor's procedure and standard governing the process and all university-wide e-mails about the search.

You can navigate to this page from the home page using the navigation bar at the top, through the Council of Trustee's webpage, or by entering the following address into your web browser:
