West Chester University of Pennsylvania
POLICY ON OWNERSHIP
OF RECYCLED OR DISCARDED MATERIALS

Any material(s) that are placed in University recycling containers or trash receptacles are the property of the University and may not be removed from those receptacles or University grounds. The current practice of permitting employees to remove and retain materials discarded by students upon the closing of the residence halls will continue to be permitted.