About
To provide financial assistance to students who are interested in pursuing master level degrees related to Community Counseling, Marriage and Family Counseling, Counseling Psychology, Guidance Counseling, Mental Health Counseling, and Clinical Psychology.

Eligibility
This scholarship program is open to students pursuing Psychology and Counseling master’s degrees. Undergraduate students do not qualify. A wide range of degree programs will be considered including but not limited to:

- Clinical Psychology Master’s Degrees
- Community Counseling Master’s Degrees
- Counseling Psychology Master’s Degrees
- Guidance Counseling Master’s Degrees
- Mental Health Counseling Master’s Degrees
- Marriage and Family Counseling Master’s Degrees

Selection is based on academic history, extracurricular activities, and employment history. Funds are sent directly to the recipient by check to the student's permanent mailing address. Financial need is not considered.

Eligible students must be full-time students during the academic year the scholarship is received.

How To Enter
The academic award is provided by Learn.org. The application process is completely online.

1. Go to the scholarship application.
2. Complete all the required information on the application form.
3. When your application is complete, click the "Submit" button.

Award Amount
$500

Deadline
April 1, 2015

Website
http://learn.org/pages/scholarship_home.html