Hello Golden Ram!

The Fall 2024 schedule is here! You can view the class schedule and plan your courses in the new RamPortal. See the list of resources below for more information. Don't forget to schedule time with your advisor to review your plan.

Before registration opens, make sure to complete the following:
1. Learn about the new RamPortal
   - View these tutorials to learn how to Search, Build, and Register for Classes.
2. Review degree requirements
   - Run your Degree Progress Report in myWCU to see what courses you need to complete for the next semester. View this document on how to Run a Degree Progress Report.
3. Meet with your advisor
   - Create a plan with your advisor for Fall 2024. Also, meet with any other offices to take care of additional holds that may prevent registration.
4. Check on Financial Aid (if applicable)
   - Updates for the 2024/2025 year will be available in RamPortal after spring grades have been posted. Due to a prolonged start by the Department of Education, funding for returning students may be delayed. Visit the Financial Aid website for updates.

Finally, log into RamPortal! This is where you will view the live class schedule and register for Fall 2024. Remember, the first time you add a course for the semester, you will be required to complete the Financial Terms and Conditions Agreement, as part of the registration process.

A couple notes before logging in:
- Please do not use Firefox. There is an active issue with this browser that we are currently working to resolve.
