

M.Ed. School Health

Student Learning Outcomes

Demonstrate advanced content knowledge related to planning, implementation, and evaluation of K-12 coordinate school health programs	All students demonstrate advanced content knowledge related to the planning, implementation, and evaluation of K-12 coordinated school health programs and curriculum development.
Demonstrate advanced levels of competence in the skills of K-12 coordinated school health program and curriculum development	All students will demonstrate advanced levels of competence in the skills of K-12 coordinated school health program and curriculum development including: planning, implementation, and assessment of health education in a school setting.
Utilize advanced principles of health literacy	All students will use advanced principles of health literacy including: advocacy and critical thinking skills to support K-12 coordinated school health programs.
Information literacy	All students will demonstrate information literacy through the acquisition of health education knowledge and skills necessary to locate, understand, evaluate and use that information efficiently and effectively within appropriate and legal limits in K-12 health education