Intro to GIS II

Target Audience:
Faculty interested in gain understanding of spatially projected data and students

Description:
Experience how your data can be projected in space using ArcGIS software. You will gain a basic understanding of GIS tools and map design.

Prerequisite:
Completion of Intro to GIS I or previous knowledge of ArcGIS

Course Includes:
- Review of Intro to GIS I
- Working with tables
  - Selecting Attributes
  - Creating Fields
- Selecting Areas
  - Select by Location
  - Spatial Overlay
- Layout View
  - Choosing Layouts
  - Centering the Area
  - Check typing mistakes or grammatical errors
  - Insert elements: Legend, North Arrow, Title, Scale Bar, Text
  - Items design
  - Exporting Maps